Arlington, Texas (May 20, 2008) – SCM Real Estate has recruited one of the Dallas/Fort Worth area’s most regarded commercial property brokers to help drive its continued expansion of service into Fort Worth. David Tuttle has assumed a position as Senior Investment Sales Specialist for SCM, where he will take charge of SCM client acquisitions and dispositions of income property in Fort Worth and throughout the Metroplex.

“David’s longstanding connections and the depth of his experience are prize assets for SCM,” said Gary Walker, SCM Real Estate founder and President. “Throughout his career, David has shown a tenacity for maximizing value for sellers and making sure every sale makes it across the finish line. He has a client base that seeks him out so we are extremely pleased to have him on board.”

Recently, Tuttle was an investment sales specialist for the Dallas and Fort Worth offices of the national real estate brokerage Marcus & Millichap. In just six years with the firm, he helped launch its Fort Worth office and closed more than $150 million in investment sales transactions.

Tuttle has also enjoyed a successful career in newspaper publishing and advertising sales. He is a former publisher for the Fort Worth Weekly and also held positions with the Dallas Observer and St. Louis Riverfront Times, all part of a large chain of alternative newsweeklies owned by New Times Media.

“With SCM’s reputation and fast-growing portfolio, I believe this is the next place for me to excel, contribute, and learn from an amazing leadership team,” said Tuttle. “I’m really thrilled about my new position with SCM and I feel confident that this partnership will create some big opportunities for Dallas/Fort Worth as well.”

Tuttle graduated from the University of North Texas with a Business Degree in Real Estate and Finance. He is extremely involved in the community and serves on committees for the National Association of Office and Industrial Properties (NAIOP), The Greater Fort Worth Real Estate Council (GFWREC), and Fort Worth South Inc.
