SCM REAL ESTATE EXPANDS WITH TWO LEASING EXPERTS

Arlington, Texas (October 13, 2008) – With an eye on continued expansion throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth area, SCM Real Estate has tapped two go-getters in the community to be part of a team that now includes about 30 leasing specialists and support staff.

As the company's new Senior Property Manager, Scott Stovall joins SCM with more than 20 years of award-winning experience managing properties and high-dollar developments throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth area. His most recent work includes consulting on projects for Hicks Holdings, LLC. Prior to this, Stovall held a Senior Property Manager position for nine years with SCL Management, Ltd., where he was the operations point for a 600,000-sq.-ft. high-rise building.

Throughout his career, Stovall has had a hand in all aspects of the commercial real estate industry, including construction management, operations, and property management. For six consecutive years, he received the CEL/BOMA "AAward" for achieving an "A" rating in customer service. His background also includes managing a range of facilities, from suburban office dwellings and retail strip centers to bustling commercial leases in downtown corridors

Stovall graduated from Texas A&M University with a degree in Agricultural Economics. He is a licensed real estate broker and a real property administrator.

"SCM is extremely proud of this expansion to the SCM team. These two individuals are passionate about making the Metroplex a better place to live and work. They each bring a valuable skill set to the company and an energy that is sure to inspire employees as well as clients," said Mark Joeckel, Director of Brokerage Services for SCM Real Estate.

Keegan Drake will take command as a Leasing Specialist for SCM, where he will represent commercial leasing tenants and cultivate new market opportunities in Central Arlington and Northeast Tarrant County. Drake has worked four years in land use, re-development, and tax policy, having served on the Capitol Hill staffs of two U.S. Representatives.

An Arlington, Texas native, Drake graduated Summa cum Laude from the University of Oklahoma, where he earned bachelor degrees in Letters and History. A Leadership Arlington graduate, Drake is also active with area Chambers of Commerce, his church, and several civic organizations..
